Early Career Program Rotations
for Computer Science and Engineering

Industrial Marketing at Worthington Plant
- Responsible for testing and documenting a new terminal product for truck scale applications
- Collaborated with developers in China and marketing department in United States to clarify and solidify requirements
- Traveled to Germany, Spain, and France to gather feedback from the Marketing Organization
- Participated in the product launch process by presenting hands-on demonstrations of the new terminal at the national sales and service meeting

Global Service Team
- Created a Software Support Delivery Strategy with a global deployment plan
- Participated in global meetings in Germany and Switzerland on the topic of software support

Business Development for the Industrial Marketing Team
- Implemented special website to introduce a new product and generate interest
- Designed, created, and populated an Access database of potential sales contacts and created a second database to track team inventory use

Retail Software Group
- Worked with the software group at the Worthington facility to develop features for the new line of Retail network scales

Vehicle Scale Software group at Masstron Plant
- Worked at the Masstron Plant to assist the software group in standardizing software processes, enabling them to be more efficient and provide a platform for the growth of the group

Global Logistics
- Refined and rolled out Supply Chain Key Performance Indicators for various METTLER TOLEDO units
- Initiated work on developing guidelines for "Design for Logistics"

METTLER TOLEDO