

Early Career Program Rotations for Industrial Engineering

Manufacturing at Worthington Plant

- Documented specifications for electrical parts to prepare for sourcing initiative
- Redesigned facility layout to incorporate new product line; worked with team to implement new facility layout

Retail Marketing at Worthington Plant

- Assisted in cost reduction projects for the retail product line
- Designed the Graphical User Interface (GUI) for new capabilities that were being added to a retail controller; interfaced with the software group in India to complete development

Purchasing

- Performed daily purchasing tasks using Enterprise Resource Planning system
- Managed supplier relations for aftermarket parts

Marketing at North American Headquarters

- Prepared competitive analyses for new and current products
- Assisted in development of collateral and sales training material for launch of new product line
- Participated in planning and preparation activities for trade show exhibition

Global Service Team

- Communicated with organization leaders and service managers worldwide to gain global perspective as related to projects; created formal project proposals using information gathered
- Developed test cases to verify functionality of calibration software for service technicians, as well as aided in the development of requirements
- Created training documents for users to guide them using calibration software

Industrial Marketing at Worthington Plant

- Updated software tool to improve its user interface, making it easier for the sales and support personnel to use
- Performed a competitor analysis for two new products, both of which provided better exposure to the industrial product line